105.2263_interviewfolder_1926.08.13_p1

LOUISE GEIST REIHL

August 13, 1926

Maid - Waitress
Employed by Mrs. Hall in September 1922

TESTIFIED (page 114 et seq.):

Worked for Mrs. Hall about a year and a half (114).

Did not give Mr. Riley (Daily News) signed statement or say she could "Blow the works" (114).

Did have short talk with Riley about July 15, 1926 (114).

Answered telephone Thursday night between 7 and 8 (117-8).

Thought she recognized Mrs. Mills' voice (115).

Phone she answered was in Mr. Hall's bedroom (115).

Went to top of stairs to call Mr. Hall (115).

Saw Mrs. Hall, who had just walked in and picked up receiver (115).

Had told Mrs. Mills "Just a minute" (115).

Told Mrs. Hall phone was for Mr. Hall who said Dr. Hall was upstairs (116).

Dr. Hall called from bathroom and shortly after answered phone, saying "yes, yes, yes, etc." (116).

Louise finished her work, came downstairs (116).

Saw Dr. and Mrs. Hall talking at foot (116).

Louise went into the pantry. Exchanged pleasantries

105.2263 p2

with Dr. Hall as he left house. (117-8)

He passed the back stoop to Redmond Street. (117)

Dr. Hall had no overcoat and nothing in his hand. (117)

Louise stayed home; went to bed between 9 and 10. (118)

Knew nothing more until the next morning when William Stevens came down to breakfast umusually early and said something to the effect "Something happened last night. Don't tell Frances I told you". (118-119)

A little later Mrs. Hall had breakfast with Willie, a place being set for Dr. Hall, and at breakfast Mrs. Hall told Louise that Mr. Hall had not come home last night and that she had called up the Police asking if an accident had been reported (120).

Mrs. Hall cried when she said Dr. Hall had not come home.(121)

On Friday Dr. Hall's sisters had lunch with Mrs. Hall and took the Voorhees child home with them in the afternoon.(121)

Louise heard conversation between Mrs. Hall and Willie Friday evening in which Mrs. Hall said"I thought he would come last night, but I know he won't come tonight". (122)

They breakfasted together Saturday morning, nothing umusual happening. (122)

Louise first heard that the bodies had been discovered about 1.15 Saturday afternoon. (122)

She did not remember telling David that she had seen Mrs. Hall going towards Henry Carpender's house Thursday evening. (122)

105.2263 p3

She didn't remember making statement that Mrs. Hall cleaned the Dodge with a vacuum cleaner on Friday morning. (123)

Mrs. Hall had a small dark sedan in which she went out about ten o'clock Friday morning, driving herself, for three-quarters of an hour. (123)

On Saturday morning Louise heard Mrs. Hall tell someone on the telephone between 12 and 1 that Mr. Hall was out of town for a few days and that the other party was not to tell her anything over the telephone. (124)

On Friday night Louise heard Mrs. Hall say something on the telephone about Mrs. Mills to Mr. Florance. (124)

Mrs. Edward Carpender told Louise and the cook Marian Gildea that the bodies were found. (125)

Louise heard no automobiles on Thursday night and didn't hear Mrs. Hall.(126)

Louise heard Mr. Edward Carpender and Mr. James Neilson talking to Mrs. Hall about 1 o'clock Saturday. (126)